(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, May 5.—Germany's diplomatic correspondence with the United States over the submarine issue has exhausted over nearly a year and has been characterized by delay and evasion and even suspicion of insincerity which more than once have brought the two countries to a pass where the long expected break seemed unavoidable. All along President Wilson has spoken primarily for the inviolable rights of Americans and generally for the rights of neutrals. Germany has been restrained by a powerful public sentiment aroused against curtailing the effectiveness of her best weapon against her enemies and President Wilson has been embarrassed first by dissension in the cabinet and later in congress and then by pro-German propaganda conducted throughout the United States.

Submarine warfare did not actually enter the realm of diplomacy until after the destruction of the Lusitania. The accumulation of cases affecting Americans was taken up in the first note to Germany, which was dispatched May 15, 1915. It characterized the attacks on the Falaba, Cushing, Guilflight, and Lusitania as "a series of events which the United States has observed with growing concern, distress and amazement."

It pointed to Germany's hitherto expressed "humane and enlightened attitude" in matters of international right and expressed the hope that submarine commanders engaged in torpedoing peaceful ships without warning were in such practices operating without the sanction of their government. The note closed with these words:

"The Imperial German government will not expect the government of the United States to omit any word or act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free exercise and enjoyment." On May 28, 1915, Germany replied with a note which covered a wide range of argument and was in every respect unsatisfactory. It alleged that the Lusitania had masked guns aboard, that she in effect was a British auxiliary cruiser, that she carried munitions of war; that her owning company aware of the dangers she was in reality responsible for the loss of American lives, and referred to the fact that the British admiralty had offered large rewards

Undisguised Disappointment Expressed at Washington; Break Thought Foreshadowed

Washington, May 5.—The first portions of the German note were read by officials here with undisguised disappointment. The tone of the first portions was of such character that some officials feared a break in diplomatic relations was forecast. The unofficial copy was sent to President Wilson as rapidly as it was received. He had no engagements outside of the cabinet meeting which was expected to be devoted almost exclusively to the German situation. No action will be taken until the official text of the note has arrived here and has been studied by the President and Secretary Lansing. The President has already discussed with his cabinet the steps to be taken in case the note was found to be unsatisfactory.

The official text is expected to be here before Sunday, the anniversary of the sinking of the Lusitania. It was greatly expected that whatever action is taken by the American government probably will come on that day.

The President has already informed congress of his intention to break relations with Germany in case her reply is unsatisfactory, and, therefore, it is believed, he has decided not to go before congress again before taking the action.

The unofficial copy was laid before the cabinet. One chief point for consideration seemed to be Germany's reference to the immunity of "merchant vessels recognized by international law." This was regarded as having possibilities of relating to the dispute over questions of aimment and alleged instructions of the British admiralty to merchant captains to attack submarines.

The first impression in official circles was that the full text did not much relieve the unfavorable impression created by the opening portions although it was admitted that the new instructions to submarine commanders would have to be weighed and considered very carefully before their acceptability to this government could be determined.

SOLDIERS BLEW UP A ZEPPELIN

Copenhagen, via London, May 5, 7 a. m.—The naval authorities at Stavanger, Norway, blew up the Zeppelin L-20 yesterday when it began to roll dangerously in a strong wind. Soldiers fired upon the airship from a distance of sixty yards. The Zeppelin exploded with detonation and was burned.

The L-20 was one of the squadron of Zeppelins which raided the east coasts of England and Scotland Tuesday night. On her return journey she was blown ashore on the Norwegian coast, hurled against a mountain side and wrecked.

Last Man to Leave His Ship, Taken to Shore Under Guard to Prevent His Suicide.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, May 5.—Details of the sinking of the Italian steamship Josef Agost Pocherzeg, formerly an Austrian vessel by a German submarine on April 23, when 150 miles off Lands End, England and the rescue of the crew from open boats by the Norwegian steamship Pythia were related by officers of the Pythia on the latter's arrival here today from London.

The Josef Agost, according to the Pythia's officers was first sighted about two miles ahead and at about the same time a submarine was seen. A torpedo was fired but missed the Italian ship, and the crew then took to the boats. The submarine then fired twenty-two shells into the steamer before she went down.

The Pythia rescued the men, thirty-two in all, and putting back, went near as she could with safety to the English coast, signalled to shore and the crew was landed in fishing boats. The captain of the Josef Agost, the last man to leave his ship went insane and was taken ashore under guard to prevent him from committing suicide.

Submarine Commanders Are to Be Instructed Not to Sink Merchant Vessels Within or Without War Zone, Without Warning and Without Saving Human Lives, Unless Vessel Resists or Attempts to Escape

NO BREAK LOOKED FOR IF PROMISES ARE KEPT

Note Repudiates Emphatically Assertion That Sussex Incident is to Be Considered But One Instance of a Deliberate Method of Indiscriminate Warfare Against Vessels of All Sorts of Nationalities and Destinations—Will Continue Use of Submarine, But Commanders Have Been Ordered to Conduct Warfare in Accordance With Principles of Visit and Search.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, May 5.—While final decision on the attitude of the American government waits on the official text some cabinet members indicated that the German assurances probably would be accepted and that diplomatic relations would not be broken unless the order to submarine commanders was violated and American lives endangered.

DECISION PROBABLY GIVEN NEXT WEEK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, May 5.—At the department, after the cabinet meeting, it was stated that no "hasty" action would be taken on the German note, and that in view of its length and the necessity of digesting it carefully it was "improbable" that any decision would be reached before next week.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, May 5.—President Wilson and the cabinet went carefully over the German note as transmitted in news dispatches from Berlin.

A first feeling that it was unsatisfactory was somewhat lessened by the text of the new orders to submarine commanders although it was foreseen that the reference to immunity for merchant ships recognized by international law might admit of some dispute of interpretation. So much depends upon words and their shades of meaning involved in translating from German to English that no decision can be attempted until the official text is in the president's hands.

Ambassador Gerard cabled today that he had started it on the cables last night. It ought to be in Washington tonight or early tomorrow. Two views were current in official circles. One was that Germany had declared her intention of abandoning her "present methods of submarine warfare" as demanded by the president and that the American government might have to wait to see whether the abandonment will be effected. The other was that the United States having already attempted to have Great Britain give up its interference with neutral commerce and having told Germany that it cannot discuss with her its negotiations with Great Britain has no course but to break diplomatic relations with Germany.

While the general tone of the German note created an unfavorable impression, officials took the position that the language was immaterial if the guarantees were real.

Germany's declaration that she has issued new orders to submarine commanders not to attack without warning "merchant vessels recognized by international law" was considered the chief point. The German view of merchant vessels as defined in its declaration of February 8 of its purpose to sink armed ships with warning and the American view as defined in the armed ship memoranda made public recently differ in several points.

Some officials believed that for this reason the controversy had now come to the point where Germany's future action would determine the course of the United States.

The refusal of the German government to openly admit the attack on the Sussex was considered only incidental to the main issue.

Until President Wilson himself decides whether the German note is acceptable there will be no announcement of the attitude of the government.

A resumption based solely on the presence of an armament on a merchant vessel of an enemy is not a sufficient reason for a belligerent to declare it to be a warship and proceed to attack it without regard to the rights of the persons on board. Conclusive evidence of a purpose to use the argument for aggression is essential. Consequently an armament which a neutral government seeking to perform its neutral duties may presume to be intended for aggression, might in fact on the high seas be used solely for protection. A neutral government has no opportunity to determine the purpose of an armament on a merchant vessel unless there is evidence in the ships papers or other proof as to its proper use to that the government is justified in substitution an arbitrary rule of presumption in arriving at the status of the merchant vessel. On the other hand, a belligerent warship can on the high seas test by actual experience the purpose of an armament on an enemy merchant vessel and so determine by direct evidence the status of the vessel.

Summarizing the status of a merchant ship on the high seas the declaration held:

"The status of such vessel as a warship on the high seas must be determined only on conclusive evidence of aggressive purpose in the absence of which it is to be presumed that the vessel has a private and peaceable character and it should be so treated by an enemy warship."

The declaration, however, recognized that armed merchant ships might be acting under instructions to attack enemy warships and make this provision:

"A vessel engaged intermittently in commerce and under a commission or orders of its government imposing a penalty in pursuing an attacking enemy naval craft possesses a status which cannot throw aside or assume at will. It should therefore be considered as an armed public vessel and receive the treatment of a warship."

ADVOCATE EXTRA MADE BIG HIT THIS MORNING

Germany's answer to the American note of April 30 was received by wireless from Berlin this morning. Sentence by sentence the message of about 3,000 words was taken from the wireless station at Sayville and instantly placed upon the Associated Press wires leading into The Advocate office and to hundreds of other newspapers from coast to coast.

Paragraph by paragraph the message was sent to the linotype machines and in ten minutes after the last word was copied by the Advocate telegrapher, the press in the basement started to print as quick edition which found a ready sale over town. It is not necessary to say that this newspaper was the first to give the news.

Chamber of Commerce Was Formally Organized at a Large Meeting of Members

The Newark Chamber of Commerce was formally organized last night at a big meeting of the members in the Assembly room of the Newark Trust building. Following the membership meeting the Board of Directors met with every member present and elected temporary officers. They immediately started in to transact much necessary business for the new organization and several of the committees are actively at work today in getting various phases of the new activities under way.

Probably no organization ever started with better feeling or more enthusiasm than the Newark Chamber of Commerce. The bureau meetings have been nothing short of remarkable for attendance and interest.

A meeting of the membership was held for the purpose of adopting the constitution and by-laws and to approve the action of the bureau in electing the directors. The constitution and by-laws were adopted without change and the bureau actions were confirmed.

The meeting of the board of directors was extremely interesting. The board organized with Mr. F. L. Beggs temporary president, John S. Fleek, temporary secretary and J. N. Pugh as temporary treasurer. Permanent officers were not elected out of courtesy to the two directors yet to be elected by the membership council. A work of forming the council starts tonight and when two directors are chosen from it, the board will elect permanent officers.

The selection of the Vice Presidents and chairman of the various bureaus was left to Acting President Beggs who appointed the following: George Hermann, Vice President of the Chamber of Commerce, and Chairman of the Mercantile Bureau; Howard Darrow, Vice President and Chairman of the Publicity and Convention Bureau; Ralph Wyeth, Vice President and Chairman of the Industrial Bureau; Prof. H. C. Price, Vice President and Chairman of the Agricultural Bureau; J. N. Pugh, Vice President and Chairman of the Civic Bureau.

Mr. Beggs immediately instructed the representatives from each bureau who, added to the two directors, composed the board of directors.

Full Text of German Answer Received Unofficially This Morning by Wireless

(By Associated Press to The Advocate.)
Berlin, May 5, (By Wireless to Sayville).—Following is the text of the German government note in reply to the American note on submarine warfare, delivered on Thursday by Gottleib Von Jagow, the foreign secretary, to Ambassador Gerard:

"The undersigned, on behalf of the Imperial German government has the honor to present to his excellency, the ambassador of the United States, Mr. James W. Gerard, the following reply to the note of April 20 regarding the conduct of German submarine warfare.

"The German government handed over to the proper naval authorities for early investigation the evidence concerning the Sussex as communicated by the government of the United States. Judging by the results that the investigation has hitherto yielded, the German government is alive to the possibility that the ship mentioned in the note of April 10 as having been torpedoed by a German submarine is actually identical with the Sussex.

"The German government begs to reserve further communication on the matter until certain points are ascertained, which are of decisive importance for establishing the facts of the case. Should it turn out that the commander was wrong in assuming the vessel to be a man-of-war, the German government will not fail to draw the consequence resulting therefrom.

"In connection with the case of the Sussex the government of the United States made a series of statements, the gist of which is the assertion that the incident is to be considered but one instance of a deliberate method of indiscriminate destruction of vessels of all sorts, nationalities and destinations by German submarine commanders.

"The German government must emphatically repudiate the assertion. The German government, however, thinks it of little avail to enter into details in the present stage of affairs, more particularly as the government of the United States omitted to substantiate the assertion by reference to concrete facts.

"The German government will only state that it has imposed far-reaching restraints upon the use of the submarine weapon, solely in consideration of neutral interests in spite of the fact that these restrictions are necessarily of advantage to Germany's enemies. No such considerations have ever been shown neutrals by Great Britain and her allies.

"The German submarine forces have had, in fact, orders to conduct the submarine warfare in accordance with the general principles of visit and search and the destruction of merchant vessels recognized by international law, the sole exception being the conduct of warfare against enemy trade carried on enemy freight ships encountered in the war zone surrounding Great Britain. With regard to these, no assurances have ever been given to the government of the United States. No such assurances are contained in the declaration of February 8, 1910.

"The German government cannot admit any doubt that these orders were given or are executed in good faith. Errors actually occurred. They can in no kind of warfare be avoided altogether. Allowances must be made in the conduct of naval warfare against an enemy resorting to all kinds of ruses, whether permissible or illicit.

"But apart from the possibility of errors, naval warfare, just like warfare on land, implies unavoidable dangers for neutral persons and goods entering the fighting zone. Even in cases where the naval action is confined to ordinary forms of cruiser warfare, neutral persons and goods repeatedly come to grief.

"The German government has repeatedly and explicitly pointed out the dangers from mines that have led to the loss of numerous ships.

"The German government has made several proposals to the government of the United States in order to reduce to a minimum for American travelers and goods the inherent dangers of naval warfare. Unfortunately the government of the United States decided not to accept the proposals. Had it accepted, the government of the United States would have been instrumental in preventing the greater part of the accidents that American citizens have met with in the meantime.

"The German government still stands by its offer to come to an agreement along these lines.

"As the German government repeatedly declared, it cannot dispense with the use of the submarine weapon in the conduct of warfare against enemy trade. The German government, however, has now decided to make a further concession, adapting methods of submarine war to the interests of neutrals.

"In reaching this decision the German government is actuated by considerations which are above the level of the disputed question.

"The German government attaches no less importance to the sacred principles of humanity than the government of the United States. It again fully takes into account that both governments for many years co-operated in developing international law in conformity with the principles the ultimate object of which has always been to confine warfare on sea and land to armed forces of belligerents and safeguard as far as possible non-combatants against the horrors of war. But although these considerations are of great weight, they alone would not under present circumstances have determined the attitude of the German government.

"For, in answer to the appeal by the government of the United States on behalf of the sacred principles of humanity and international law, the German government must repeat once more, with all emphasis, that it was not the German but the British government which ignored all accepted rules of international law and extended this terrible war to the lives and property of non-combatants, having no regard whatever for the interests and rights of neutrals and non-combatants that, through this method of warfare, have been severely injured.

"In self defense against the illegal conduct of British warfare, while fighting a bitter struggle for national existence, Germany had to resort to the hard but effective weapon of submarine warfare.

"As matters stand, the German government cannot but reiterate regret that the sentiments of humanity which the government of the United States extends with such fervor to unhappy victims of submarine warfare are not extended with the same warmth of feeling to many millions of women and children, who according to the avowed intention of the British government shall be starved, and who, by suffering shall force the victorious armies of the central powers into ignominious capitulation.

"The German government, in agreement with the German people, fails to understand this discrimination, all the more as it has repeatedly and explicitly declared itself ready to use the submarine weapon in strict conformity with the rules of international law as recognized before the outbreak of the war, if Great Britain likewise was ready to adapt the conduct of warfare to these rules.

"Several attempts made by the government of the United States to prevail upon the British government to act accordingly failed because of flat refusal on the part of the British government. Moreover, Great Britain again and again has violated international law, surpassing all bounds in outraging neutral rights. The latest measure, adopted by Great Britain declaring German bunker coal contraband and establishing conditions under which English bunker coal alone is supplied to neutrals is nothing but an unheard attempt in the way of exaction to force neutral tonnage into the service of British trade war.

"The German people knows that the government of the United States has the power to confine the war to armed forces of the belligerent countries in the interest of humanity and maintenance of international law. The government of the United States would have been certain of attaining this end had it been determined to insist, against Great Britain on the incontrovertible rights of freedom of the seas. But as matters stand the German people is under the impression that the government of the United States while demanding that Germany, struggling for existence, shall restrain the use of an effective weapon and while making compliance with these demands a condition for maintenance of relations with Germany's enemies. Moreover, the German people knows to what undesirable extent its enemies are supplied with all kinds of war material from the United States.

"It will therefore be understood that the appeal made by the government of the United States to sentiment of humanity and principles of international law cannot under the circumstances meet the same hearty response from the German people which such an appeal otherwise always is certain to find here. If the German government nevertheless is resolved to go to the utmost limit of concessions it has been guided not alone by the friendship connecting it with the United States for over one hundred years but also by the thought of the great doom which threatens the entire civilized world should the cruel and sanguinary war be extended and prolonged.

"The German government conscious of Germany's strength, twice within the last few months announced before the world its readiness to make peace on a basis safeguarding Germany's vital interests thus indicating that it is not Germany's fault if peace is still withheld from the nations of Europe. The German government feels all the more justified in declaring that responsibility could be borne before the forum of mankind and in history if after twenty-one months of the war's duration the submarine question under discussion between the German government and the government of the United States were to take a turn seriously threatening maintenance of peace between the two nations.

"As far as lies with the German government, it wishes to prevent things from taking such a course. The German government, moreover, is prepared to do its utmost to confine operations of the war for the rest of its duration to the fighting forces of the belligerents, thereby also insuring freedom of the seas, a principle upon which the German government believes, now as before, that it is in agreement with the government of the United States.

"The German government, guided by this idea, notifies the government of the United States that German naval forces have received the following order:

"In accordance with the general principles of visit and search and the destruction of merchant vessels recognized by international law such vessels, both within and without the area declared a naval war zone, shall not be sunk without warning and without saving human lives unless the ship attempts to escape or offer resistance.

"If neutrals cannot expect that Germany forced to fight for existence shall for the sake of neutral interests restrict the use of an effective weapon if the enemy is permitted to continue to apply at will methods of warfare violating rules of international law, such a demand would be incompatible with the character of neutrality, and the German government is convinced that the government of the United States does not think of making such a demand, knowing that the government of the United States repeatedly declares that it is determined to restore the principle of freedom of the seas from whatever quarter it has been violated.

"Accordingly the German government is confident that in consequence of the new orders issued to the naval forces the government of the United States will also now consider all impediments removed which may have been in the way of mutual co-operation toward restoration of the freedom of the seas during the war, as suggested in the note of July 23, 1915, and it does not doubt that the government of the United States will now demand and insist that the British government shall forthwith observe the rules of international law universally recognized before the war as are laid down in the notes presented by her 28, 1914, and November 5, 1915.

"Should steps taken by the government of the United States not attain the object it desires to have the laws of humanity followed by all belligerent nations, the German government would then be facing a new situation in which it must reserve to itself complete liberty of decision.

"The undersigned avails himself of this opportunity to renew to the American ambassador assurances of highest consideration."

GEN. JOHN CLEM WAS IN NEWARK EN ROUTE EAST

General John L. Clem, retired brigadier general of the United States army, while enroute from San Antonio, Texas, to Washington, D. C., stopped at Newark yesterday to visit his sister, Mrs. John P. Adams, 104 Eleventh street.

General Clem goes to Washington at the solicitation of Congressman William A. Ashbrook, who with Sen. Chamberlain, are going to introduce a bill in the house and the senate to have Mr. Clem, who is now in the army with the title of Major General, Congressman Ashbrook notified General Clem to go to Washington and the matter would be taken up immediately.

If the bill passes the house and senate, General Clem will be listed on the retired list as major general, the highest rank in the army. General Clem will leave for Washington tomorrow morning.

Newark, his birthplace, to visit relatives and friends while enroute to Dayton to attend a reunion of his honor, given by the boys of Clem's class. The citizens of Dayton also became interested in the reception and September 19-20, they held "Clem Day," in honor of the Newark man. It is quite probable that the "Clem Day" celebration will be observed this year by Dayton citizens and members of the Clem garrison.

Mr. Clem was the guest of the Hon. William S. Miller at the municipal reformers of the J. A. Clem's shows at the Auditorium, Thursday evening. A banquet and was one of the first to purchase an Adriatic extra containing Germany's reply to President Wilson's note. The general was greatly interested in the issue and read Germany's reply carefully before making any comment.

"Well it looks serious," he said to some friends, "but that is only on the surface. I don't think it will be a break in diplomatic relations between the two countries, and I simply hope it is not as bad as it appears."

General Clem will pay another visit to Newark on his return home from Washington and his main business will be to address him and his family on his return.

Chilean coal is so soft that nearly as much of it is wasted in getting it out of the mines.

songs, Cadman's "At Dawning," Del Acqua's "Villanelle," and Clutsum's "My Curly-headed Baby," and each number was rendered very sweetly, and she was greeted with rounds of applause at the close of each number. After her last one Mrs. Tucker was compelled to respond to an encore, "The Primrose," by Brown, and was presented with a beautiful bunch of American Beauty roses.

Worth Criswell bringing them to the platform as an appreciation of the Christian Endeavor society.

Greg's Concerto in A-minor was most exquisitely rendered by Miss Eleanor Kopp and Mrs. Marguerite Manley Seidel, and to say this number was enjoyed and appreciated would scarcely express it. Their technique and precision could scarcely be equalled, and for an encore they gave another Grieg number.

The next artist on the program was Miss Goldie Mede, and her "Adagio" at once gave the audience the excellency of this wonderful virtuoso, for her expression and her soul-inspiring technique made many feel as if she might be favorably compared with Maud Powell. Her Mozart Minuet, beloved by all, was heard as never before and when she concluded with Van Goen's Scherzo her audience was at her feet, and she was compelled to respond to an encore—this only adding laurels to her other numbers.

Mr. Edwin Stainbrook played a group of numbers, and this very young artist gives promise of great things. His technique, his expression, his playing was an individuality all of its own. His first number, Chopin "Prelude," betrayed his great ability and as he continued with the Prelude "Gravesque" by Rogers, and Greg's "Morgenstimmung" by Grieg, the enthusiasm of the audience became more and more and when he concluded the applause was wonderful and he played a most beautiful encore.

Mrs. Tucker sang, by request, Elizabeth's Prayer, by Tannhauser, and was greatly appreciated.

The Poeme Symphonique by Liszt, was the crowning number of the evening, played on two pianos by Mrs. Elsa Weibach-Wray, Miss Eleanor Kopp, Miss Alba Russell and Miss Martha Martindell, and to attempt to express the beauty of this number would be impossible. Mrs. Seidel surely is a most wonderful teacher indeed, for all the piano artists were her students and she coached and trained all of them. Mrs. Seidel is not only a most thorough teacher, but her lovely personality and sympathetic way brings a natural bond between teacher and student. Mrs. Seidel expects to have a class in Newark one day a week in the fall, and many have signified their intention of studying with her.

Miss Alba Russell accompanied Miss Mede in the most charming manner and added to Miss Mede's beautiful numbers.

Mrs. William Tucker accompanied Mrs. Chandler Tucker on the piano, and supported her songs in the most artistic manner, as she always does. Miss Lenora Phillips at the organ gave a very added finish to the Elizabeth Prayer, and proved the delightful accompanist she is.

The Columbus artists are all members of the Columbus Musical society.

Husband Deserted Her.
Because her husband, Frank W. Loyd, skipped out and left her alone in their home at Buckeye Lake during high waters last summer, Elizabeth J. Loyd has sued for divorce in Columbus.

She says she was at the mercy of the flood for five days and that her husband made no effort to rescue her.

Divorce Petition.
Ella G. Russell has filed a petition in common pleas court against Link C. Russell. The parties were married June 13, 1895, and are parents of two minor children. Statutory grounds are alleged and the plaintiff asks for a divorce, reasonable alimony until the case can finally be heard upon its merits, when she asks that permanent alimony be granted her. She also claims that defendant is the owner of eight residence properties and asked that defendant be restrained from disposing or encumbering same. The injunction was granted by the court.

To Court of Appeals.
In the case of Charles P. Graff, et al., vs. Elizabeth Mary Graff, et al., the plaintiffs have filed a bill of exceptions to the ruling of the court in overruling a motion to have a receiver appointed and have filed a petition in error to the court of appeals. The case involves a suit brought to set aside the will of the late George Graff.

What is the 7th Point?

From Maine to California, from Texas to Hudson Bay, millions of people have been asking "What is the 7th Point in Sterling Gum?"

In practically every town, city and village in the United States and Canada, the published six points of superiority have brought Sterling Gum fast-growing popularity.

But the seventh point still remains a riddle.

Point #7 What?

Now, we are offering liberal prizes to those who send us the best suggestions for the Sterling Gum Point 7.

Before you make your suggestion for the 7th Point, read the following:

The Following Story Unfolds the Secret of the Famous Point 7

To most people chewing gum is a mystery. They may know that different chewing gums are made from different ingredients. But that is about all. Here are facts which we believe you will be glad to know about Sterling Gum:

Your Sterling Gum is made from the following materials:

The basis is the pure sap of the tropical Sapota Tree—a natural gum.

This natural Sapota Tree sap is boiled, sweetened and flavored. The sweetening is simply pure cane sugar and pure corn syrup.

The flavoring is of two kinds—Peppermint (in red wrappers), Cinnamon (in blue wrappers).

There are some twenty varieties of the mint plant. The Sterling Peppermint is a product of the choicest, smoothest-flavored of these many mint varieties.

The spicy Cinnamon flavor is extracted from the Cassia bush which grows in the tropics.

The sap of the Sapota Tree, the cane sugar, the corn syrup, the Peppermint and Cinnamon flavors all come from the sap of some plant or tree. Nature herself supplies these delicious materials from which your Sterling Gum is made.

Requirements for Winning Phrase

When you read the above facts on the materials that Sterling Gum is made of, you will know all that it is necessary for you to know in entering this contest.

The first prize will go to the one whose suggestion, based on the above story, most impressively presents the natural purity of Sterling Gum—in the opinion of the judges.

Remember that your suggestion must be in six words or less.

The next best suggestion will win the second prize—and so on down.

It is understood that the Sterling Gum Company will have the right to use the 7th Point suggestions sent in by the prize winners.

The contest is easy to enter. Just think out your way of expressing the 7th Point. Then write it out in six words or less and send it in as directed in the conditions printed below. Even if you don't win the first prize of $1,000, you stand a chance to win one of the 7,777 smaller prizes.

Music

The May Musical Festival given at the First Presbyterian church on Thursday evening was a very great success in every sense of the word. Every seat in the church and gallery was filled and it was a most appreciative audience. The platform was beautifully embellished with spring blossoms, and the sweet-toned parlor grand Kirtzman, through the courtesy of Mr. P. J. Fairall, and the Steinway upright belonging to the church, added to the scene, while the pretty gowns of the lady artists enhanced the scene.

The affair was presented by the Christian Endeavor society of the church, under the direction of Mrs. Chandler J. Tucker.

The opening number, Schubert's March Militaire, was a brilliant number, played most beautifully upon two pianos by Mrs. Wray and the Misses Martindell, Russell and Kopp, and was received with great applause.

The second number was a veritable gem, Moskowski's "Moment Musical," played by Mrs. Elsa Weibach-Wray. It was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Tucker then sang a group of Germany's Answer.

The full text of Germany's reply to President Wilson's note of April 20th appears in today's Advocate, having been received by wireless this morning from Berlin. The answer from Germany is a message of about 3,000 words. The introductory paragraphs are far from encouraging to those who desire to see America's diplomatic relations unbroken but the gist of the message lies in the definite instructions which the German government has given to the submarine and naval commanders. Compliance with those instructions would doubtless meet the requirements of the American demand.

It is for President Wilson alone to decide whether Germany's answer to America's demands is "satisfactory" and he can be depended upon as heretofore to do the right thing.

If Germany sees to it that the new orders to submarine commanders are not violated, there seems to be no necessity of breaking off diplomatic relations.

It is our judgment that while portions of the message are distasteful the sky is perceptibly cleared and that the outlook for continued peace between Germany and the United States is brighter than it has been for many months.

When the new State Board of Agriculture began to run its affairs all into politics, they discharged Mrs. Nesbitt, the wife of a farmer, who had made a national record in her work for the state, promoting interest in farm life, home decoration, sanitation and the like. They replaced her with a city woman. Now Mrs. Nesbitt has been drafted to the city of Ft. Wayne, Ind., at a salary greater than that paid her by this state.

After delaying paying the grocer's bill for several months, thus compelling him to add to his prices the interest he has to pay on borrowed money, many people complain because the cost of living is so high.

Some people's ideas of making their home town a "garden city" is to allow grass to grow up in their walks and out into the street line.

Irish Rebels Executed.

(Pittsburgh Gazette Times.) The deplorable blunder of the Irish uprising is accentuated by the summary execution in London of some of the ruling spirits in the ill-conceived revolt and condemnation of others to imprisonment of varying terms. Large numbers of others of lesser prominence in the movement are prisoners in England where stern and speedy punishment awaits them. It is probable that in all several thousands of persons will have suffered.

Daily History Class—May 5.

1812—The British captured Oswego, N. Y. Other important conquests along the lake border followed.
1813—A column of Kentucky volunteers led by General Green Clay gallantly raised the siege of Fort Meigs on the Maumee river.
1821—Napoleon I. died at St. Helena; born at Ajaccio, island of Corsica, 1769.
1830—Hill No. 60, near Ypres, Belgium, captured by the Germans, who again used asphyxiating gas.

ferred in some degree for the folly of a few misguided zealots and the net result is another crushing blow to the progress of Ireland toward ultimate self-governing independence. That the whole plot underlying the outbreak was the gauzy filament spun by dreamers rather than handiwork of practical men is revealed in the personalities of those most prominent in its fomenting. Patrick H. Pearse, "president of the Irish Republic" during the one bloody week of its existence, and who gave up his life in London Tower yesterday, was a poet and a schoolmaster, a profound student of Celtic tradition, and has been described as a very quiet, pious, gentle sort of man, with a high sense of justice and a hatred of oppression. It is to be regretted that in his make-up there was not an underlying stratum of hard, sound common sense to restrain him in an ardor that has plunged himself and so many of his misguided followers to destruction.

James Connolly, commander of the troops of the revolutionists, who also forfeited his life, was likewise a man well fitted by natural gifts and by education for better things. Connolly was well known, not only in this country, but in the immediate vicinity of Pittsburgh. He was for some time the editor of a Socialist newspaper published in New Castle, Pa., and previously had toured the country as a lecturer. He was a man of high education and refinement, having been trained at Sandhurst, the English military school, and was well liked by those with whom he came in contact in this country.

The accomplishments and attainments of Sir Roger Casement, whose fate is still in abeyance, are known to all the world. Like the others, however, he was given to high-flown ideals and visionary exploits rather than to substantial and methodical procedure. Altogether the wretched mess into which Ireland has been plunged with such tragic consequences has been a striking example of the blind leading the blind.

Town Clean Up.

Apocryphal of the coming clean-up movement, it may be noted that out in Valparaiso, Ind., they gave a theatrical entertainment, open to anybody that would bring a string of 19 old tin cans. When the show came around, there were 1,000 strings produced. This is interesting as far as it goes, but we would like to know what ultimately became of these 19,000 cans.—Hartford Courant.

Suffered Great Pain!

Letter Tells of Long Looked-for Prescription.

Dear Mr. Editor—I am making a personal appeal to your readers who are bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and rheumatism, to give up the use of harsh salts, or alcoholic kidney medicines and in their place take a short treatment of "Anuric" and be convinced of its wonderful virtues as I was. I suffered great pain, had a great deal of irritation, water became foul, I tried everything advised but with no results. I sent for a box of "Anuric Tablets" and soon discovered that they brought relief. I have used them since, and now the water is natural, my health good, and my bladder and kidney troubles that I know of, if I can induce anyone to give it a trial, I feel that he will thank me for calling attention to this great boon that relieves this seemingly worst of all troubles that human flesh can fall heir to. (Signed) H. H. FLEISHER.

Note: Up to this time, "Anuric" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing tablet, Doctor Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers. Simply ask for Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets. There can be no imitation. Every package of "Anuric" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever-famous friend to ailing women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, proven by years to be the greatest general tonic and reconstructer for any one. At any rate don't give up hope of being cured of your malady until just a few doses of Anuric have proven that it will make you feel like a different person. Editor—Please insert this letter in some conspicuous place in your paper.

Getting money is not all a man's business: to cultivate kindness is a great part of the business of life.—Johnson.

Ho, Hum!

We've put the snow shovel away for a while. But the coming of summer won't make Father smile. For, though snowdrifts are absent and blizzards are gone. We have a lawn mower and we have a lawn.

—Luke McLuke.

And probably while the lawnmower is new. Dear Father will run it a brief time or two. But his ardor will be evanescent, I fear. Then he doubtless will cheerfully let Mother mow.

The Wandering Husband.

Dr. Alexander Graham Bell announces that the best thinking is done after midnight, which, now that our attention is called to the matter, is the time when many of our prominent citizens begin to think about going home.—Ohio State Journal.

Looked at superficially this may seem best at the time. But if our wife should happen to be awake when we got home—well, we'd like to have the doctor prove the point to her, that's all!

Aunt Caline Says:

As I was going down to set awhile with Annie Gramm I met Bilge Water Limpin' out o' Doc Carvem's office. He was walkin' with two canes an' his head was bandaged till you could scarcely see his face, which was rather an advantage. "What's the matter, Bilge?" I says. "Well, no, Aunt Caline," he says. "What happened to me will always remain a dark mystery. We was down at Deep Drinkum's celebratin' my birthday with a little supper. We'd drunk a few toasts an' Oh! Still was respondin' to one on 'Wimmon.' He says, 'Always remember that woman is the weaker vessel an' make 'em understand it. Go home an' tell your wives that.' Now I ain't got no wife, so as I was passing Mandy Lee's (which is a colored wash lady) I thought I'd stop an' tell her. An' I done so. An' that's the last I remember till I woke up a-lyin' in the gutter quite a piece up the street from Mandy's."

A Suggestion.

Forty-three Princeton graduates say they have never been kissed. Quite a bunch of gentlemen Ananias.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

What they ought to do is to move this benighted institution of learning up a little closer to Bryn Mawr.

And Still She Complained.

"But why did you hit her with the dictionary?" "I saw she was determined to have the last word, so I gave her all of them."—Houston Post.

And even so it would be a safe bet that she wasn't satisfied.

It Was Pretty Bad.

Never, in the wildest flights of our imagination, have we dreamed of rhyming "awful" with "coole." We don't know yet what a "motor-coole" is. What we really wrote was "motorcycle" and the other word rhymed with it very nicely. But the man who read the proof—well, he's that refined that it isn't likely money could hire him to use a word that could not be found in "Elegant Expressions" for "Young Ladies." So he took the harmless little quatrain down to the blacksmith and had him tinkler it up. The reason we proffer this explanation is that there are several indictments out against us now, and one or two more like this will convict us of being an ass.

Did You Know

That the only difference between spaghetti, vermicelli and macaroni was in the matter of size? Factories for making these products have been established in America. Hard white wheat is washed, dried, cracked and polished into what is called "semolina." Hot water is added to this to form a dough which is rolled and kneaded and finally put into a cylinder press where a piston forces it through holes in the bottom. The macaroni as it hangs from the cylinder is cut into ten-foot lengths, taken to a cutting table where it is cut into box lengths and then dried for eight days.

Largest Electric Meter.

What on completion will be the largest electric meter in the world is being designed for the water power plant of the Mississippi River Power Company, which dams the Mississippi River at Keokuk. The meter will be capable of measuring power up to 250,000 kilowatts or 333,000 horsepower and of recording the load on 30 generators whether operating together or independently. The Keokuk plant, at which the meter will be installed, is the largest low head water-power development in the world.—Electrician World.

Prosperity.

The Republican orators are still trying to represent that all the prosperity is due to the munitions trade, but there isn't a peg of fact for them to hang their fictions upon. The Department of Commerce has just issued a statement that the export of munitions in 19 months was $240,000,000. The total exports of the country are more than 10 times that in 12 months. And the exports of a year are less than the bank clearings of a single week, so small a fraction of our total trade is covered by the much exploited munitions business.—Philadelphia Record.

No Fear of Militarism.

Note the results of our new recruiting. The first month netted fewer than 4000 soldiers. If we had been recruiting steadily at this rate since Andrew Jackson was elector to the Presidency, we should now have an army equal in number to the present British volunteer army, provided none of our recruits had died in the meanwhile. As the oldest of them would now be about 102 years old, that condition is evidently inadmissible. Does this look as if the average American was aching to seize a rifle and lord it over his fellows? We compare the British army because it is recruited most like ours. Of course, we do not need an army of millions in time of peace, but comparison with any other army on earth, in any phase and from any standpoint, makes our military equipment look like a high light in farce-comedy.—Boston Herald.

HOW TO BE SLIM

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, don't starve and weaken your system or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to any good druggist, and get a box of Oil of Koren capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night. Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body. It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.

OBREGON MAY URGE TROOPS BE WITHDRAWN

El Paso, May 5.—General Obregon Mexican minister of war, may bring up the subject of speedy withdrawal of the American troops in Mexico at his next conference with General Scott, according to information from Juarez.

He is not expected to press the matter, but simply again to urge upon the American conferees the danger of irritation to the Mexican people if General Pershing's column remains south of the Rio Grande, and of some consequent conflict that might lead to new complications. As far as the United States is concerned however, it is pointed out that there is not likely to be any change of attitude.

Granville

Granville May 5.—The township trustees and members of the town council yesterday inspected the east and west ends of the temporary roads through Granville, and deciding that neither terminal is satisfactory, have ordered further work in grading and widening, which order is being carried out. No dirt road can withstand the rain of the past season, especially where there has been such wholesale overwatering as there has been in Granville. But the actual work of paving Broadway will soon begin and weather permitting, will be pushed rapidly.

President Clark W. Chamberlain left today for Cleveland where he is to be principal speaker at the Denison banquet to be held in Hotel Statler on Euclid avenue in that city this evening. Cleveland is one of the Denison strongholds both in the matter of representation on the board of trustees and in that of student attendance. The Denison club of that city is a large and efficient one and the president of Denison University is always an important and welcome guest at the annual banquet. Dr. Chamberlain will speak on the "Million Dollar Endowment," and he will also attend a meeting of the endowment committee to be held in Cleveland on Saturday.

Beethoven once said that the masterpiece of an orchestra was its drums, and Beethoven knew more about orchestras than any man before or since his time. Modest Atshunier, conductor of the Russian Symphony, knows something about orchestras, too, but whether he learned it from Beethoven or not, he has paid more attention to his tympani than any other director who has wielded the baton in San Francisco in considerable time. His organization is tempered like a Toledo blade—but so have others, before. But never have their been drums and tympani like his. They are not mere punctuations in the rhythm, they have tone. They are not merely used to hurl into a crescendo passage to add noise to the ensemble—they merge with the whole effect and form a sort of foundation instead of an out-building. The tympani at times sounded like the plucking of strings on a giant bass viol, giving an effect of massive dignity. . . . The Slavs have given the present generation music of a new and vital character, and the programs of the Russian Symphony display this ideally."

This organization will be heard in a wonderful program on Monday afternoon, May 8th at 2:30 o'clock in the Baptist church, Granville, and as an accompaniment to the "Creation" in the evening of the same day at 7:30.

A special meeting of the G. A. R. is called for Monday evening, May 8th at 7 o'clock, to arrange for Decoration Day on May 30. All are invited to attend this meeting. J. V. Wood, president; A. Norris, secretary.

The Denison track team will go to Miami tomorrow and the base ball team to Springfield. Coach Livingston is deploring his inability to be in two places at the same time.

The Franklin Literary society of Denison university will present T. Floyd Hickman, baritone, in concert recital, Saturday evening in the Granville Opera House which promises to be a treat to music lovers, as the young man possesses a voice of wonderful appeal. Mr. Hickman has a standing offer from the Dixie Jubilee Singers of Chicago to join them at any time.

Mr. M. P. Ashbrook having sold his present residence on Plum street to his son Burt Ashbrook, is planning to build a bungalow on his lot opposite, which is the upper Samson lot.

Mr. T. M. Kier will soon begin the erection of a new stucco residence on his farm on the Newark road, which he purchased last year. Mr. Charles Robinson will superintend the construction.

The Aedean Literary society of Shepards college will give its annual extra on Saturday evening, May 6 in Recital Hall. This will be a play which promises to be a feature of the season's offerings.

Dr. Francis W. Shepards of Chicago, one of the most prominent of the Denison alumni, is to be one of the principal speakers at the convention of Beta Theta Pi fraternity in Columbus tomorrow. It is hoped that Dr. Shepards may visit Alpha Eta Chapter for a few hours before returning to his duties in the University of Chicago, where he occupies the position of dean of the graduate schools.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cochran expect guests from out of town for the May Festival on May 8th.

Mr. Walter Kemp will entertain a "box party" at the May Festival concert on May 8th.

Miss Dora Lisle has gone to Mt. Vernon as a delegate to the Presbytery. She is alternate for Mrs. E. P. Cook, who was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Nichol, who have been in Cleveland at the bedside of Mrs. Nichol's sister, Mrs. George Williams, have returned to their home in College street. They left Mrs. Williams in a slightly improved condition.

Persons who are responsible for important musical ventures in their own communities, should know the best in music, and should be able to differentiate among the best offerings. A splendid opportunity is presented next week in the performance of the Russian Symphony at Granville, an organization which has forced to the front rank and maintained its position through sheer merit alone, without any financial guarantee to back it. Don't fail to hear it.

beth B. Owen was laid to rest in Maple Grove cemetery this morning. Rev. Millard Brelsford, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated at the impressive service held in that church at 11 o'clock. Old friends of the Owen family, which for many years was among the most prominent in Granville, acted as pallbearers: J. A. Austin, Dr. A. K. Follett, Jerre Ackley, Dr. R. S. Colwell, John Geach, H. W. Howe. Mrs. Owen was one of the most faithful and conscientious members of the Baptist church, where her cheerful efficiency in the work of the Ladies' Social Union has never been forgotten. Her lovely Christian character gained for her a host of friends, many of whom have preceded her to the "home over there," although many are left who were present at the last sad rites.

Prof. W. B. Owen and Charles Owen of Chicago, children of the deceased, accompanied the remains from Chicago.

DIPLOMATIC

(Continued from Page 1.) cidents cropped out of the affair, chief of which was the forwarding of a message to the Berlin foreign office by Dr. Dumba, the Austrian ambassador later recalled at the request of President Wilson which was represented as stating substantially that Mr. Bryan had intimated to the ambassador that the vigorous tones of the American note should not be regarded in Berlin as too warlike.

Later Mr. Lansing took office as Mr. Bryan's successor and his reply to the German note took issue with every contention Germany had set up in the Falaba and Lusitania cases, denied flatly the contention that the Lusitania was armed or was to be treated as other than a peaceful merchant ship, and reminded Germany that it was the duty of the United States to "speak with solemn emphasis to call the attention of the imperial German government to the grave responsibility which the government of the United States conceive that it had incurred in this tragic occurrence, and to the indisputable principle upon which that responsibility rests."

The note averred that the declaration of a submarine war zone could not abbreviate the rights of Americans on lawful journeys.

To that note Germany did not reply until July 8 and the German rejoinder was preponderately characterized by American newspapers, not as a note, but as an address by Foreign Minister von Jagow to the American people. In official circles it was said to come no nearer to meeting the American contentions than did the former German note.

Finally the accumulation of evidence reached such proportions with the destruction of the Sussex that President Wilson, convinced that assurances given in the Lusitania and Arabic cases were being violated dispatched another note to Germany and went before congress, reviewed the entire situation from the beginning and made this declaration:

"I have deemed it my duty to say to the imperial German government that if it is still its purpose to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare, the government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue; and that, unless the imperial German government should now, immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of warfare against passenger and freight carrying vessels this government can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations altogether."

It will be noted that the president went further than "liners" and said "passenger and freight carrying vessels."

The wording of the note to Germany was almost identical with the foregoing passage.

The president dispatched the note on the night of April 18 and addressed congress the following day. Since then the German reply has been awaited.

The internal embarrassments which have confronted the president in his conduct of the negotiations have been no less than the attitude of Germany. The most spectacular incident was an attempt in congress to pass a resolution warning Americans off armed ships and the movement so impressed the Berlin government with a conviction that the president was speaking without the whole support of congress and the country, that he was forced to muster all the strength of his administration to compel congress to bring the resolutions to a vote and defeat them decisively before the negotiations with Germany could go on.

ENGINEER BLAMED FOR THE WRECK AT AMHERST, O.

Columbus, May 5.—Failure on the part of Herman H. Hess, engineer of the second section of the eastbound train, to observe the "caution" and "stop" signals, is given by inspectors of the state utilities commission as the cause of the New York Central wreck, March 29, at Amherst, in which 27 persons were killed and 47 injured. A. H. Ernst, towerman, is exonerated.

The official report of State Inspectors M. J. Heffernan and W. F. Packard was filed yesterday with the commission. It comprises 445 typewritten pages. Modification of flagging rules of the railroad, so as to make them more specific and stringent, is recommended.

The two sections of train 86, east-bound, were speeding at a rate of 50 miles an hour through a dense fog in which signals could not be distinguished by trainmen at distance of more than 75 or 100 feet when the rear section crashed into the one ahead, according to the report. A moment later the Twentieth Century Limited, westbound, plowed through cars piled upon the westbound track.

The inspectors sum up their findings as follows: "We believe after a most thorough investigation, that the engineer of second No. 86 failed to observe the 'caution' indication and the 'stop' indication; these two signals are the first and second signals, respectively, west of the point of collision, and that this was the direct cause of the accident, notwithstanding his statement to the contrary." Regarding the towerman, the report says: "Operator Ernest had been stationed at the Amherst plant but five days previous to the time of the accident, but he had been in charge of similar plants at other points for some time; was experienced, thoroughly competent and familiar with the levers, signals, etc."

A contributing cause for the accident is found by the investigators in the wording and interpretation of a rule of the railroad, which resulted in the flagman of the first section of the train failing to go back far enough toward the following section to insure full protection. The rule referred to provides: "When a train stops or is delayed under circumstances in which it may be overtaken by another train, the flagman must go back immediately with stock signals a sufficient distance to insure full protection."

"This leaves it entirely to the judgment of the employee to determine what is a 'sufficient' distance to insure full protection, and leaves room for error of judgment, where such errors may be disastrous," the inspectors indicate in their report. "A circumstance which greatly contributed, we believe, to the severity of the collision, was the high speed of the trains and the density of the fog that prevailed on the morning of the accident," the inspectors declare.

Another excerpt from the report, which seems to place contributing responsibility for the accident above the heads of the trainmen is the statement: "It is strange, notwithstanding the statement of all three engineers involved in this accident, admitting that they frequently got by 'caution' signals, and yet with all the tests that have been made, this practice has never been discovered by the officers and proper discipline applied."

GRAND JURY WILL DROP WRECK PROBE.

Elyria, May 5.—The triple wreck on the New York Central railroad at Amherst, March 29, will not be probed by a Lorain county grand jury or investigated by a coroner's inquest. These decisions were reached last night, following the receipt of an opinion from the attorney general.

Coroner Charles V. Garver filed a 27-page report with the Lorain county clerk of courts yesterday, giving details of the accident. The attorney general rules that the coroner has no authority to conduct an inquest of a railroad wreck in which are involved passengers, employees or trespassers.

"There is no law in Ohio by which a coroner could hold any one criminally responsible for the disaster," declared Coroner Garver. "An inquest would cost the county at least $1,000 and would accomplish nothing."

The World War a Year Ago Today—May 5.

Petrograd officially acknowledged Russian retreat in West Galicia, eastward and northward from the passes of the Carpathians under the relentless pressure of Austrian columns. The Russian right flank, which had so long menaced Cracow, had been turned by Von Mackensen's victories on the Dunajec line, and the entire offensive in the Galicia zone of eight months' duration had come to naught.

IF YOU WORRY, READ THIS

Worry never brought any good to anybody. But, you say, "I don't worry because I want to." Or, "I worry because I can't help it." Or, "I worry because I have so much to worry about." We all have our troubles and worry, of course, makes matters worse. The patient generally recognizes this fact without being able to profit by it. The doctor who could meet this nervous condition and cure it would be the most popular medical man alive. But he cannot do it because the form of nervous exhaustion known as neurasthenia, of which worry is a characteristic symptom, must be cured by the patient himself. That is why you should write today for the book "Diseases of the Nervous System," and read the chapter on "Neurasthenia." So many people have read it and written back, "This hits my case exactly, I am giving the treatment a trial and being benefited." That the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. has had a lot of these books printed and will send you a copy free on request.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a non-alcoholic tonic, particularly suited for nervous, neurasthenic people. Your druggist sells them or they will be mailed postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

Indigestion May Be Due to Constipation

Neglect of Important Function May Seriously Impair The Health.

There are many people who believe they suffer from indigestion when their discomfort really is due to a constipated condition.

Bloat, with its attendant mental depression, sick-headache, the belching of sour stomach gases, etc., are frequently due to inaction of the bowels. Relieve the congestion and the trouble usually disappears. The use of cathartics and purgatives should be avoided, however; these shock the system unnecessarily and, at best, their effect is but temporary. A mild laxative is far preferable.

The compound of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended. Mr. Benj. Bassin, 360 St. Gary, Ind., thinks Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a wonderful medicine; for years he had a severe case of indigestion and constipation before trying Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which he is glad to recommend to all who suffer with stomach and bowel trouble.

BENJ. BASSIN.

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be in every home for use when occasion arises. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

INDIAN Motorcycle is the BEST Motorcycle

Notable Cross-Country Motorcycle Records

practically all of them have been made on Indians with the CRADLE SPRING FRAME.

For it's only on the Indian that you find this remarkable comfort mechanism—the device that, on rough roads, gives you the sensation of sailing on smooth waters.

The difference between Cradle Spring Frame riding and that of the ordinary shock absorbing devices is the difference between walking on iron heel plates and rubber heels—between riding in a farm tractor and a high-grade motor car.

The Cradle Spring Frame has more than comfort and ease in its favor. It keeps shocks from jolting motor mechanism. It absorbs the jars and bruises which the tires ordinarily suffer. Low upkeep cost results—greater mileage, less general tinkering.

Come in and test its velvety "give". Find out why you can travel fastest on roughest roads with the Cradle Spring Frame.

NOTE CAUSES BIG DROP IN STOCK MARKET

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, May 5.—Wall street's grave view of the German note was reflected in the demoralized tone of the stock market at the opening today. active issues, particularly those comprising the war group, breaking three to six points, with 19 for Bethlehem Steel.

The tenor of the German reply was generally known before the market opened, the news tickers and other agencies having published many of its essential features.

There was a very large attendance of members on the floor of the exchange and the offices of brokers were crowded with apprehensive customers.

Commission houses received countless queries by telephone and telegraph from out of town points.

Brokers had numerous selling orders and the course of the market at the opening denoted little support.

The more specific declines included Crucible Steel, 6 points, Lackawanna Steel, 4; Studebaker 4 1-2; Anaconda, 3 1-2; Industrial Alcohol, 1 1-2; U. S. Smelting, 6 1-2 and numerous 1 to 2 point declines elsewhere.

United States Steel opened with 4,000 shares at $9 1-2 to $1 against yesterday's close of $2 5-8 and marine preferred initial sale comprised a block of 3,300 shares at $2 to $9, a maximum decline of 6 points.

Rails were relatively steady, declines in that division ranging from fractions to 1 1-4. Supporting orders brought rallies of 1 to 4 points in the first fifteen minutes but the markets undertone continued feverishly active.

THE RAILROADS

G. M. Skiles Dies.

A. R. Clayton, local claim agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company, last night received a telegram notifying him of the death of Attorney G. M. Skiles, distinguished Shelby citizen, at his home yesterday morning.

Mr. Skiles had suffered a gradual decline in health since last fall, when he had an attack of pneumonia while in Cleveland on a business trip and was confined for several days in a hospital in that city. He was well known among railroad men on the Newark division of the B. & O. railroad as well as other railroads in the state.

He became recognized a number of years ago as one of the best damage suit attorneys in the state. He had fought the railroad companies and other corporations for years in damage suits and while winning many cases from the railroads was always considered a fighter and a man of the highest integrity.

Ringling's Advance Car Here.

Ringling Brothers advance advertising car in charge of George Goodheart, car manager, arrived in this city last evening via the B. and O. lines. The car was "spotted" on the side track at the depot and today the members of the crew were busy posting bills in Newark and the surrounding country. Mr. Donaldson, press agent for the Ringling Shows, also is with the No. 1 car. Mat Smith, well known local bill poster, is trooping with the Ringling show this season and is with the advance car.

Charles Tiede, another member of the advance crew, visited William Denning today. Mr. Denning and Tiede having trooped together with the Ringling show for several seasons.

Trespasser Killed.

Minstrels Disbanded.

The J. A. Coburn minstrel show which disbanded here for the season, following last night's show at the Auditorium, left for their homes via the B. & O. last night. Some of the members of the company bought tickets to Concord, N. H., Memphis, Tenn., and other points of the country.

Pacific Coast Trip.

J. M. Davis, general manager of the B. & O. S. W., and the C. H. & D. railway has completed arrangements for sending six officials on an observation and educational tour of the Pacific Coast. The party will consist of H. R. Laughlin, Jenkins, Ky., superintendent; E. J. Correll, Chillicothe, O., division engineer; A. A. Iams, Dayton, O., superintendent; F. H. Setcheil, Cincinnati, mechanical engineer; R. B. Mann, Cincinnati, assistant superintendent; and E. B. Russell, Cincinnati, chief clerk to General Manager Davis.

The trip is in pursuance of a policy inaugurated by Mr. Davis to have his staff become familiar with operation methods followed by other lines. The party will occupy a B. & O. office car and will prepare a report covering observations on track standards, maintenance of equipment and buildings, handling of traffic, signal systems and other matters of interest to operating department officials.

The party leaves Cincinnati at 4:30 p. m. tomorrow and will visit St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, La Junta, Los Angeles, San Jose, San Francisco, Sacramento, Reno, Ogden, Salt Lake City, Omaha, Kansas City, St. Louis and return to Cincinnati.

The trip is in pursuance of a policy of each of the roads the party uses will travel with it to give the men any information they desire.

RINGLING'S

FIRST ADVERTISING CAR WAS IN NEWARK IN CHARGE OF MATT SMITH.

Newark Man Has Envyable Reputation as Circus Publicity Man—Date is May 26.

What a Newark boy can do in his chosen line of endeavor was exemplified today when the first advertising car of Ringling Brothers' circus arrived in town. Heading the crew of distributors is Matt Smith, a local product, and by noon all one could see in both the business and residential streets was "Friday, May 26" the date of the local engagement. Mr. Smith has been under the Ringling banner for the past three years, and in circusdom enjoys an enviable reputation as an outdoor publicity expert.

The first advertising car will be followed next week by another known as the excursion car. The crew will attend to the railroads diverging from Newark, and a week later, seven days before the circus itself arrives, the third car will arrive and complete the advertising campaign.

With Matt Smith on the first car is Harry Bechtold, one of the most prominent Moose in Pennsylvania. Mr. Bechtold is taking a vacation and is travelling with the publicity men visiting the various Moose homes on the itinerary. He occupies the position of assistant district deputy of the third district of Pennsylvania and his home is in Lancaster, Pa. Mr. Bechtold is a pleasing talker and is hugely enjoying his trip with the circus men.

Interest in the performance this year centers in the brand new spectacle "Cinderella" which is given on the largest portable stage in the country. A ballet of 300 dancing girls and a clown ballet are two of the diversissements new this season, and the cast in the pantomime includes 1250 actors and 735 horses.

The circus program contains over 350 acts, many of them new to this country, while the foreign importations number some of the cleverest Europeans in this country for the first time, and only here because of the warring conditions abroad.

The menagerie contains 108 cages with 1003 animals, and the elephant herd of 41 elephants is headed by "Big Bingo" called by the press agent "the biggest brute that breathes." Then there are 24 camels, six giraffes, a hippo and two rhinoceroses.

Of course there will be a circus parade. It will be a feature of circus day morning, and will be the only parade of a circus this season, for Ringling Brothers will be the only tented show that will come here this year.

Wear rubbers in damp weather; keep your feet dry; drink plenty of lemonade, and avoid strong alcoholic drinks.

If rheumatism gets you, or seizes you, and you have sharp twinges, gnawing pain or swollen joints or muscles, you can get rid of all agony in just a few days by taking one-half teaspoonful of Rheuma once a day.

All druggists know about Rheumatism. It's harmless yet powerful; cheap, yet sure, and a 50-cent bottle will last a long time. Ask T. J. Evans or any druggist.

J. W. FRY ASSERTS

THAT TANLAC PROVED A BLESSING IN HIS CASE.

Stomach Trouble and Attendant Evils Banished.

J. W. Fry, a woodworker, 171 Ninth street, has found Tanlac beneficial in his case. He says:

"I had stomach trouble, was bilious, food did not digest, felt poorly and slept badly. Tanlac made me feel better, eat heartily, sleep better and relieved my indigestion. Tanlac has greatly benefited me and I gladly recommend it."

Tanlac is equally as beneficial in liver and kidney troubles, catarrh and rheumatism and pre-eminent as a spring and nerve tonic and blood and system purifier.

Tanlac is demonstrated at Hall's Drug Store and is for sale at Utica by P. H. Richardson, Pataskala by J. R. Strine, Granville by W. P. Ullman, Johnston by C. S. Howard, Croton by J. W. Haines, Hebron by Hebron Drug Co. and Centerburg by E. B. Walters.—Adv.

ple the position of assistant district deputy of the third district of Pennsylvania and his home is in Lancaster, Pa. Mr. Bechtold is a pleasing talker and is hugely enjoying his trip with the circus men.

Interest in the performance this year centers in the brand new spectacle "Cinderella" which is given on the largest portable stage in the country. A ballet of 300 dancing girls and a clown ballet are two of the diversissements new this season, and the cast in the pantomime includes 1250 actors and 735 horses.

The circus program contains over 350 acts, many of them new to this country, while the foreign importations number some of the cleverest Europeans in this country for the first time, and only here because of the warring conditions abroad.

The menagerie contains 108 cages with 1003 animals, and the elephant herd of 41 elephants is headed by "Big Bingo" called by the press agent "the biggest brute that breathes." Then there are 24 camels, six giraffes, a hippo and two rhinoceroses.

Of course there will be a circus parade. It will be a feature of circus day morning, and will be the only parade of a circus this season, for Ringling Brothers will be the only tented show that will come here this year.

Clergymen, Lawyers, Brokers, Mechanics and Merchants Stricken.

Our old friend Rheumatism is having his inning this year, and a few words of caution from one who knows all about it may not be amiss.

LIMITATIONS OF TAX RATE

The tax commission in its report has named the rates for current expenses as follows:

For county purposes 3 mills
For municipal purposes 5 mills
For township purposes 2 mills
For school purposes 5 mills

The aggregate for all purposes including the state levy for current expenses, 10 mills.

These limitations may be extended to 15 mills by a vote of the people, and to meet indebtedness incurred prior to June 2, 1911, the date of the passage of the so-called Smith one per cent law, or incurred thereafter by a vote of the people. Levies in excess of 15 mills include the state highway levy of 3 mill, levies to restore public school buildings destroyed by fire or other casualty or condemned by state building inspectors, public property destroyed by the flood of 1913, to meet the expenses of an epidemic, and for a few other purposes.

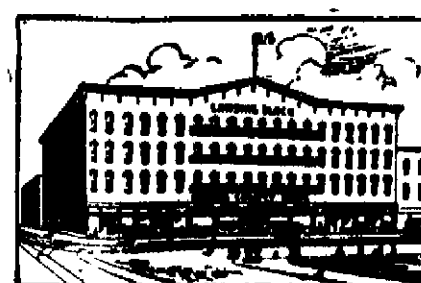

More than 20,000 feet of good lumber was made last year from trees caught while floating down the river.

What Does The Ordinary Suit Look Like

After a Few Weeks
Wear

It is easy to find suits that look well the first few times you wear them. But what you are most anxious to be sure of, that your suit will continue good looking—retain its smart, fashionable lines—as long as you wish to wear it. Cheap suits lose shape and show wear very quickly. Good materials continue to look new. Let us show you the many attractive styles we are displaying.

Spring Coats Introduce Very Clever Ideas.

Many new and distinctive features, such as cape collars, high collars, odd shapes in sleeves, large pockets, fancy pockets are shown. The fabric range is large. Silk coats, striking plaids and stripes, white chinillas, gossams in high colors. Also many stylish weaves in plain colors and mixtures.

Silk Dresses Showing All the New Features.

The many styles displayed make a stock that can suit all tastes. One has a wide range of materials with tulle, crepe-de-chine, and crepes all used effectively alone and combined with Georgette crepe.

The Separate Skirt Is Important

COMMENCING SATURDAY, MAY 6TH Factory Sale of Rings

OWING TO THE DULL JEWELRY BUSINESS A REPRESENTATIVE OF A BIG PROVIDENCE HOUSE CONDUCTS THIS SALE.

As you are doubtless aware, the jewelry business has been hit hard the past few months—and most factories are simply marking time. But one there is—a leading Providence concern—who has found a way out of the difficulty—that's why its a leading concern. Their scheme is simple—a representative of the factory comes to our store, bringing thousands of rings—conducts the sale for us on a big scale—sells hundreds—at marked reduction from real worth. As we said before it's a simple idea, but it has kept this factory busy and it gives employment to their workmen and it gives our customers wonderful bargains in beautiful rings.

These Rings Consist of Signet, Band and Stone and Are of Sterling Gold, Sterling Silver and Gold Shell—FOR WOMEN, MISSES, CHILDREN AND BABIES

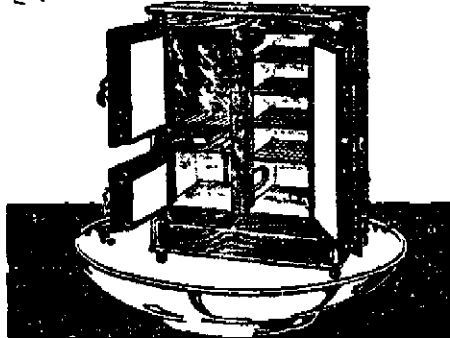

We want you to see this display—there are any quantities of different kinds of stones—some genuine and some set in a hundred and one fashionable ways. Don't judge them by the price—for this is a real factory sale and jewelry store prices and profits are not thought of. The price is, for choice, only 19c

Values 50c to $1.00
Remember, some of rings are solid gold, some stones are genuine. First Comers Get First Choice, Which Is Best.
